

Career Services Newsletter

September 2005

<http://www.virginia.edu/a-ocpp/>

Career Workshops and Events

• September 14 - Public Service Fellowships

Applications now online at www.arch.virginia.edu/~sch-docs/scholarship/pubservfellowship.html. The program provides the opportunity to work in local nonprofits. Organizations include: Alliance for Community Choice in Transportation, The Building Goodness Foundation, Charlottesville Community Design Center, GreenBlue, Habitat for Humanity, The Nature Conservancy, Piedmont Housing Alliance, Thomas Jefferson Foundation, Thomas Jefferson Planning District Commission. 10 Fellowships for $5000 each.

• September 20-22 - Engineering Career Days 2005

9:30-3:00, Darden Court. Registered companies at www.seas.virginia.edu/careerdevelopment/companies.php. In particular, URS Corporation in DC is looking for May '06 architecture grads. Visit their website at www.urscorp.com for more information. Also, Urban Resource Group, is looking for May '06 Landscape grads and summer interns. Visit www.kimley-horn.com/kha for more info.

• September 26 - FAQs about Graduate School Panel Workshop
Panel workshop in conjunction with the UCS Professional & Graduate School Forum. Provides perspectives about the role of graduate school as related to career goals. Panelists from all disciplines. 5-7pm, Recruiting Room of Bryant Hall in Scott Stadium (ground floor next to athletic ticket office).

• September 28 - Professional & Graduate School Forum

Over 140 schools in attendance in a fair format. 10 am - 3 pm, Newcomb Hall.

• October 4 - Externship Applications

Start researching companies and check your email for announcements about this year's program requirements.

Competitions

September 26 - Virginia Student Design Competition

Open to architecture and landscape architecture students in Virginia. The competition seeks new approaches to the problem of "visitability" in single family residences. $2000 first prize. For more info, www.arch.virginia.edu/competitions/visitability.

September 26 (Registration deadline) - Miami+Beach Biennial 2005

International Student Competition

Competition open to architecture students to design new entrance to Lincoln Road Mall in Miami. Details, site information, and registration available at www.bienalmiami.com. First prize $1000.

November 3 - Metal construction Association Student Design Competition

The 2005 challenge is to design an outdoor band/performance pavilion in Chicago, Illinois. Program requirements at www.metalconstruction.org.

November 15 - MOTOFWRD Seamless Mobility competition

Motorola, Inc. is calling students to depict - in words or visuals - how tomorrow's society will answer consumer demand to live in seamless mobility. Grand prize: $10,000, Bluetooth-enabled car, suite of Motorola's most advanced mobility products, and a summer apprenticeship with the Chief Technology Office. Applications accepted Sept. 1 - Nov. 15. For more info, visit www.motorola.com/motofwrd.

February 8 -(Registration deadline) - ACSA/AISC Student Design Competition

American Institute of Steel Construction competition to design an Aquatic Center. For more information, visit www.acsa-arch.org/competitions. Questions? Competitions hotline at 202.785.2324, ext. 8 or competitions@acsa-arch.org.

International VELUX Award for Students of Architecture.

Look for information to be posted in early October at www.velux.com/a. The theme is "Light of Tomorrow," and focuses on daylighting design.

Fellowships/Scholarships

September 22 - Fulbright Program

For more information, visit www.fulbrightonline.org/us/home/html. Questions should be directed to the Center for Undergraduate Excellence at 924.6082.

Internship Opportunities

October 14 - EDSA 2006 Internship Program

Internship begins in January in Fort Lauderdale, Florida for 3 months. In May, interns are flown to Beijing to work at EDSAOrient. Please send all materials to the Intern Coordinator by Oct. 14th. See website for details on how to apply at www.edsaplan.com/interns/Interns_flash.html.

Volunteer Opportunities

September 15 - Design Build Opportunity for the Music Resource Center

The Charlottesville Community Design Center is offering students the opportunity to help design the acoustic treatment of the recording studio of the MRC. Work would start during the semester and continue over the January extern week. Available for up to 6 students. Informational meeting Sept. 15, 6 pm in Campbell Hall 153.

Career Services Info

Check our website at: <http://www.virginia.edu/a-ocpp/> for job postings, internship opportunities, fellowships and scholarships, and information on upcoming career events and deadlines.