

Career Services Newsletter

January 2006

<http://www.virginia.edu/a-ocpp/>

Career Services Deadlines

February 14 - Resume/Interview Workshop

John Cole, of Cole + Denny, Alexandria will be here to help with resumes and interviewing. Room 104, 2-3:30.

New website now available!

Check out the new, expanded webpage, searchable by state, at www.virginia.edu/a-ocpp.

Internship Opportunities

January 30 - US/ICOMOS Exchange Program in Historic Preservation

Provides hands-on experience for a young practicing professional. 12-week internship during the summer with orientation in D.C. then to host organizations to complete preservation-related project. For more information and to apply, visit www.icomos.org/usicomos/Intern_Program/2006_Program_Overview.htm.

February 1 - Sally Kress Tompkins Maritime Documentation Internship

Sponsored by the Council of American Maritime Museums, permits a student of architecture or history, interested in maritime preservation, to work as a summer intern on a HAER maritime documentation project. Award is a $5400 stipend. For info visit www.cr.nps.gov/habshaer/joco/kress.htm or contact todd_croteau@nps.gov or 202.354.2167.

February 24 - EDSA 2006 Summer and Summer/Fall Internship

Involves 3 months in 1 of EDSA's office locations, Fort Lauderdale, Orlando, Los Angeles, or Baltimore. For more information, visit www.edsaplan.com.

February 24 - Design Workshop Internship

Design Workshop seeks 16 undergrad and grad students for its annual 10-day charrette and 10-week paid internship in its Salt Lake City office. For information and application, go to www.designworkshop.com.

Treasury Summer Internship

The Department of the Treasury, Office of the Curator seeks a grad student for its 11-12 week internship at the main Treasury Building in D.C. This year's topic is the Treasury building's landscape history. Salary is $5200 and the intern will produce a final report and make recommendations for future development. To apply, send two recent writing samples and resume to richard.cote@do.treas.gov, Treasury Curator.

Fellowships/Scholarships

February 1 - Sally Kress Tompkins Fellowship

The SAH/HABS Sally Kress Tompkins Fellowship permits an architectural historian to research a HABS project for 12 weeks during the summer. $2000 stipend. For information, visit www.cr.nps.gov/habshaer/joco/skthf.htm or contact james_jacobs@nps.gov or 202.354.2184.

February 28 - WHR Tradewell Fellowship

WHR Architects is seeking students interested in a healthcare architecture fellowship. Contacts: Christie Dickenson, Griffin Studio Assistant or Charles D. Cadenhead, the Director of the Program. For information, visit www.whrarchitects.com.

March 15 - Goody Clancy Fellowship

Goody Clancy is offering a summer faculty fellowship ($15,000 stipend). For more information, see www.goodyclancy.com.

Conferences

February 16-18 - "Philip Johnson and the Constancy of Change"

MoMA/Yale University symposium. See poster in Room 201.

March 23-25 - Forum on Historic Preservation Practice

Flyer available in Room 201.

March 23-26 Art Center Design Conference

Info at www.artcenter.edu/designconference.

March 24-26 - Structures for Inclusion 6, San Francisco

More info at www.designcorps.org/sfi.

Competitions

February 15 - American Cancer Society Cure By Design Runway Design Competition

For their fund-raising event, Cure by Design, the Central Virginia Regional Office of the American Cancer Society intends to build a runway and style the interior of the La Diff warehouse for their March 25th fashion show. Open competition, single stage, no fee. Visit the website at www.aiaric.org.

March 31 (registration deadline) - RECREATION: 2006 Leading Edge Student Design Competition

Focuses on sustainable and energy efficient design and construction. This year's competition is at the Orange County Great Park in Irvine, CA and involves two different challenges depending on year in school. For more information, see www.leadingedgecompetition.org.

May 1 - PCI Architectural Design Competition

This year's competition will be the design of a new School of Architecture and University Museum Complex. Also includes an IDP category for competition. For more information and to participate, visit www.pci.org under the "education" section.

Career Services Info

Check our website at: <http://www.virginia.edu/a-ocpp/> for current postings.