In terms of scale, Preston Court dominates the neighborhood streetscape, which is occupied primarily by smaller buildings. However, its proportions do not disrupt the context, since the building is well articulated both in plan and elevation.
preston court apartments

view from grady avenue