FANZONE TRAVEL AWARD

AWARD SUBMISSION DEADLINE
March 18, 2019

AMOUNT
$2,500

PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND
The Fanzone Travel Award was founded in 2016 in memory of Carmen Fanzone (BS Arch, 2009), who was dedicated to building communities through design and showed genuine generosity and thoughtful enthusiasm to all those he encountered. It is an opportunity for one student to travel to a location of their choosing to perform a summer independent study. The intent of the award is to support students that focus on the use of indigenous materials, local construction and fabrication practices, and issues of sustainability and equity in communities they feel are underserved by design.

ELIGIBILITY
+ Rising fourth-year undergraduate students
+ Graduate students who will be enrolled during the 2019-2020 academic year

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS
All required materials must be submitted as a single PDF to the Office of Recruitment, Admission + Financial Aid at a-school-admissions@virginia.edu

Applications must include:
+ Scholarship, Fellowship + Award Application Cover Page
+ Statement of Intent (1 page max.) describing the research to be developed while abroad. The statement should include a description of the purpose (including social context), method(s) of research and analysis, a project itinerary outlining sites to be visited, and a project budget outlining all travel and research costs.
+ Letter of recommendation from a School of Architecture faculty member*
+ Examples of your work, which may include proposed methods of representation (2 pages maximum)

* Note: Applicants are strongly encouraged to have their faculty recommenders review the statement of intent prior to submission.

TERMS
+ The work developed during the fellowship will be exhibited and presented in the School of Architecture during the academic year following the fellowship summer.
+ All recipients are required to submit the School of Architecture Scholarship, Fellowship + Award Agreement.
+ Recipients who will engage in travel abroad are required to register with the International Studies Office 30 days prior to departure. It is strongly recommended that recipients register their travel as early as possible.
+ Recipients receiving federal financial aid should consult with SIS and/or Student Financial Services to determine the impact of receiving this scholarship on their overall financial aid package.